

Large Amaryllis Bulbs

Amaryllis bulbs don't look like much, but the huge flowers they produce are breathtaking. Once planted, each top-sized bulb produces two, sometimes three, towering stems. Each stem will be topped by four or more impressive flowers. Available from Colorblends.com, a Connecticut-based flower bulb company that sells direct to landscape professionals and home gardeners coast-to-coast, offering wholesale pricing with a minimum order of $60.
