

Colorblends Daffodil Blend The Gold Shoulder

Colorblends Daffodil Blend The Gold Shoulder is just the ticket for low-maintenance color in early spring. It's a tough blend suited to naturalizing in sunny spots with well-drained soil. Planted along driveways and other sites where the bulbs can be left undisturbed after bloom, these daffs often come back to bloom, year after year. All daffodils are deer and rodent proof -- animals will not eat them. Colorblends is a Connecticut-based flower bulb wholesaler that sells direct to landscape professionals and home gardeners coast-to-coast with a $60 minimum.
