

Daffodil 'Peach Cobbler'

Daffodil 'Peach Cobbler' has large double flowers in lovely shades of cream and golden yellow. It blooms in early-mid season and stands 16 to 18 inches tall. Deer and rodents leave daffodils alone because they contain a bitter toxic alkaloid called lycorine that mammals know not to eat. Available from Colorblends.com, a Connecticut-based flower bulb company that sells direct to landscape professionals and home gardeners coast-to-coast, with a $60 minimum.
