

Daffodills Along a Path

Spring-blooming daffodils are a natural choice for planting along a meandering garden path. Plant daffodil bulbs in fall. If planted in well-drained soil in sunny spots, daffodils can naturalize and come back to re-bloom, year after year. Available from Colorblends.com, a Connecticut-based flower bulb wholesaler that sells direct to landscape professionals and home gardeners coast-to-coast with a $60 minimum.
