

Dutch Tulip Hunter Eric Breed

Dutch bulb expert Eric Breed and four adventurous Dutch friends staged a series of rugged mountain expeditions to find and photograph wild tulips in their native habitats. A collection of their images is presented at Tulipsinthewild.com. The tulips were photographed growing wild in the barren steppes and remote peaks of some of the world's more difficult terrain in Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Tajikistan and Turkmenistan. Others are shown in Afghanistan, Iran, Turkey, Crete, Greece, Italy, Switzerland and Algeria. An interactive map provides a link to each tulip image based on where it was photographed. The site was created by the Amsterdam Tulip Museum and U.S. bulb seller Colorblends.com.
