

Golden Roads Daffodils, Fall Planting

Each fall, since 2005, the Lewisboro Garden Club in South Salem, New York, and community volunteers have planted 4,000 daffodils along local byways. They call their beautification project Golden Roads Daffodils. The well-organized annual planting is accomplished in three hours on a Saturday morning in late October. Among regular volunteers are local school and scout groups.

3648 x 2736

Please Credit: George Scott

Copyright-free for editorial and educational use. All other rights, especially commercial rights reserved by George Scott