

Entrance Garden in Spring - Janie McCabe/Colorblends.com

A flower bulb planting creates a bright carpet of spring color in this Connecticut garden designed by garden designer Janie McCabe. White tulips, cobalt blue grape hyacinths and yellow dwarf daffodils are planted among white candytuft and pink-and-green hellebore. Later, emerging perennials will camouflage the declining bulb foliage after bloom. In the background are hydrangea bushes, soon to leaf out.
