

Pink Tulips and Crabapple Blossoms - Mark Konlock
GBBG/Colorblends.com

Playing with layers of color is an effective way to amplify the impact of spring bloom, says Mark Konlock, director of horticulture at Green Bay Botanical Garden in Wisconsin. His pairing of two-toned pink tulips with similarly two-toned pink crabapple blossoms heightens the beauty of each. Flower scale also plays in, says Konlock. The large tulip flowers are more dramatic against the backdrop of small crabapple blossoms. For more on combining spring bulbs and perennials, visit BulbDesignNotes.com, a garden design project from Colorblends.com.

4032 x 3024

Please Credit: Mark Konlock/Colorblends

Copyright-free for editorial and educational use. All other rights, especially commercial rights reserved by Mark Konlock.