

'Boscobel'

David Austin English Rose 'Boscobel' has large flowers in a rich salmon color that changes over time to a rich, deep pink. The myrrh fragrance has a hawthorn character with hints of elderflower, pear and almond. 'Boscobel' forms an upright, medium-sized shrub that is strong and healthy with dark green, glossy foliage. Approximately 78 petals per flower. Repeat flowering. Grows to 4 feet tall x 4 feet wide. (David Austin 2012, Auscousin). Companion plant: Cosmos 'Ruby Red Sensation'.
