

'Crown Princess Margareta'

David Austin English Climbing Rose 'Crown Princess Margareta' has neat, fragrant, apricot-orange rosettes. It's a medium climber, attaining 12 feet. The large flowers have approximately 120 petals each. The fruity Tea Rose fragrance is strong and lovely. The flowers are borne in clusters on a tall, slightly arching shrub. This is a beautiful, free-flowering rose that is particularly winter hardy and thrives even under tough conditions. Repeat flowering. (David Austin 1999, Auswinter).
