

DAR's The Lion Garden

David Austin's two-acre rose garden in Albrighton, England attracts visitors from all around the world to visit the home of English Roses. The rose garden showcases 700 different varieties of roses, which bloom in flushes from late May until the first frosts. Featured areas include The Lion Garden (seen here), The Renaissance Garden and the National Collection of English Roses. The Austin gardens are open to the public year-round.
