

David C.H. Austin

The late rose hybridizer and author David C. H. Austin in July 2016 at age 90, with his dog, Bertie, 5. The photograph was taken at the David Austin Roses show garden in Albrighton, England. Mr. Austin is best known for creating English Roses, in which he combined the lush flower forms and fragrance of Old Roses with the repeat flowering, health and color range of modern roses. The Austin rose nursery, show garden and plant center draw visitors from around the globe. (Bertie is a Stafford Bull Terrier.)
