

'Harlow Carr'

David Austin English Rose 'Harlow Carr' is one of the most fragrant of all English Roses, with a pure, classic Old Rose scent. Its mid-pink flowers have perfect formation, each with approximately 120 petals. This tough, healthy variety performs well in both hotter and colder areas. It is an excellent repeat bloomer, covered with flowers from early summer through late fall. Grows to 4 feet tall by 3 feet wide. (David Austin 2004, Aushouse). Companion plant: blue Lavandula (lavender).
