

'Malvern Hills'

David Austin English Rambling Rose 'Malvern Hills' is a repeat-blooming that produces large clusters of small, double, soft yellow flowers. Its fragrance is a light, sweet musky Noisette scent. This is very healthy and reliable rose. The small green leaves are polished and pretty. The slender stems are strong with few thorns. It is a versatile climber, 15 feet tall, thus is perfect for a pergola, small arbor, trellis or wall.
