David Austin English Rose 'Tottering-by-Gently' produces masses of single yellow flowers held in large, open sprays. The flower is simple and charming, with 5 petals surrounding golden stamens and a light musky fragrance with fresh notes of orange peel. It repeat blooms from early summer till frost. The large, healthy shrub grows 4 feet tall by 4 feet wide, has rounded, branching growth and produces fine, orange-red rose hips if not deadheaded. (David Austin 2018, Auscartoon). Companion plant: Phlox paniculata.
